REFERENCE DOCUMENTS
FOR THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Proposal No. 1: Appropriation of Surplus

The Company's key management policies are the enhancement of corporate value with proactive business investment and the direct return of profits to shareholders through dividend payments.

Using internal capital reserves, we are working to reinforce our corporate strength and further increase per-share corporate value. In the coming terms, with a 20% dividend payout ratio as a guideline, we will pay dividends linked to business performance, and we will address the need to increase the ratio as a medium- and long-term management issue.

Although the Company reported loss attributable to owners of parent as a result of recording extraordinary loss in relation to the integration of the container shipping businesses, the Company is on a clear path of earnings recovery heading into the future. Taking this into consideration, we propose to pay a year-end dividend for the fiscal year of ¥10.00 per share.

As we have already paid an interim dividend of ¥10.00 per share after taking into consideration the effect of the share consolidation on October 1, 2017, the annual dividend of the Company will be ¥20.00 per share for FY2017.

1. Matters related to year-end dividend

- (1) Type of dividend property
Cash
- (2) Matter related to distribution of dividend property to shareholders and total amount thereof
¥10.00 per common share of the Company Total amount: ¥ 1,195,968,390
- (3) Effective date of distribution of surplus
June 27, 2018

2. Matters related to appropriation of surplus

As shown below, we intend to draw down funds from the general reserve. This is to compensate for the loss in retained earnings brought forward due to the loss related to the restructuring of the container shipping businesses and to pay the year-end dividend.

- (1) Item and amount of surplus to increase
Retained earnings brought forward Amount: ¥ 81,000,000,000
- (2) Item and amount of surplus to decrease
General reserve Amount: ¥ 81,000,000,000

Selection policy and process

The selection of candidates for the Board of Directors is based on the report from the Nomination Advisory Committee. The basic policy of the Company is to have a board composed of inside directors and several outside directors. Directors appointed from within the company should have extensive experience and knowledge and the ability to contribute to the enhancement of the Group’s corporate value. Moreover, they should possess broad perspectives and foresight and be able to make management decisions on a global basis. Outside directors should be able to contribute to the enhancement of the Group’s corporate value from an objective perspective based on extensive experience and knowledge in their area of expertise.

The candidates for directors are as follows:

Candidate number 1	Reappointed	Number of the Company’s Shares Held 16,600 shares	Number of years as Director 11 years *as of the conclusion of this meeting

Independence Criteria for Outside Officers

The Company has established the following criteria for the independence of outside directors and outside audit & supervisory board members (hereinafter referred collectively as “Outside Officer”). The Company deems an Outside Officer or a candidate for Outside Officer to have independence in the event that none of the following items is applicable upon the Company having investigated to the extent that is reasonable and practically possible.

(i) A person who is an executing person*¹ of the Company or its subsidiaries (hereinafter referred collectively as the “MOL Group”) or has served as an executing person of the MOL Group during the past ten (10) years (in the case of a person who has served as non-executive director, audit & supervisory board member, or accounting advisor of the MOL Group at a certain point in time during the past ten (10) years, during the ten (10) years prior to their appointment).

*1: An executing person refers to an executive director, a corporate officer, an executive officer, other person with similar responsibilities, or an employee of a corporation or other organization.

(ii) A current major shareholder*² of the Company or an executing person thereof, or a person who has fallen under such category during the past three (3) years.

*2: A major shareholder means a shareholder who holds shares with 10% or more of voting rights in his or her own name or in another person’s name at the end of the most recent fiscal year of the Company.

(iii) A party in which the MOL Group directly or indirectly holds 10% or more voting rights out of the total number of voting rights, or an executing person thereof, or a party which has fallen under such category during the past three (3) years.

(iv) An executing person of a company which has accepted a director (either full-time or part-time) from the MOL Group, or the parent company or a subsidiary thereof, or a person who was an executing person of such company during the past three (3) years.

(v) An executing person of a financial institution or other major creditor, or the parent company or a major subsidiary thereof, which is indispensable for the MOL Group’s financing and on which the MOL Group depends to an irreplaceable extent.

(vi) A party with which the MOL Group is a major business partner*³, or if such party is a company, then an executing person of such company, or the parent company or a major subsidiary thereof, or a party which has fallen under such category during the past three (3) years.

*3: A party with which the MOL Group is a major business partner means a party which, in its most recent fiscal year, received a payment of 2% or more of its consolidated total revenue from the MOL Group (excluding payment of compensation for directors from the MOL Group if a party with which the MOL Group is a major business partner is an individual).

(vii) A party which is a major business partner of the MOL Group*⁴, or if such party is a company, then an executing person of such company, or the parent company or a major subsidiary thereof, or a party which has fallen under such category during the past three (3) years.

*4: A major business partner of the MOL Group means a party which paid the MOL Group 2% or more of its gross sales in its most recent fiscal year.

(viii) A party which was an accounting auditor of the MOL Group, or an employee, etc. thereof, or a party which has fallen under such category during the past three (3) years.

(ix) A consultant, an accounting professional, or a legal professional receiving a significant amount of money or other assets*⁵ other than director remuneration from the MOL Group (if a party receiving such assets is an organization such as a corporation or an association, then a person who belongs to such organization), or a party which has fallen under such category during the past three (3) years.

*5: A significant amount of money or other assets means ¥10 million or more of money or other property benefits received per year other than director remuneration in its most recent fiscal year (if a party receiving such assets is an organization such as a corporation or an association, a significant amount of money or other assets means the amount of money or other assets benefit which exceeds 2% of the gross revenue of the party in its most recent fiscal year).

[Translation for Reference and Convenience Purposes Only]

(x) A party which received donations or grants exceeding a certain amount*⁶ from the MOL Group (if a party receiving such donations or grants is an organization such as a company or an association, then an executing person of such organization), or a party which has fallen under such category during the past three (3) years.

*6: Donations or grants exceeding a certain amount mean donations or grants exceeding the greater of ¥10 million per year on average during the past three (3) years or 2% of the gross revenue of a party in its most recent fiscal year.

(xi) A close relative*⁸ of a person who is applicable to the above-listed items (i) through (x) (limited to a person who is in an important position*⁷).

*7: A person who is in an important position means an employee who holds a senior management position, such as executive director, corporate officer, executive officer, or general manager or above; if a person belongs to an auditing firm or an accounting firm, then a certified public accountant; if a person belongs to a law firm, then a lawyer; if a person belongs to an incorporated foundation, an incorporated association, or an incorporated educational institution, then an officer such as councilor, board member, or an auditor-secretary; or other person who is objectively and reasonably considered to be of equivalent importance.

*8: A close relative means a spouse or a relative within the second-degree of kinship.

(xii) Other person who might have a conflict of interest with general shareholders and in circumstances which are reasonably considered to prevent the person from fulfilling duties as an independent outside officer.

Proposal No. 5: Issuance of Stock Acquisition Rights as Stock Options to Executive Officers, Employees Who Hold Senior Management Positions, and Presidents of the Company's Subsidiaries

In fiscal year 2018, the Company will offer stock acquisition rights as stock options to Executive Officers who do not serve as Directors of the Company, employees who hold senior management positions, and Presidents of subsidiaries; and authorize the Board of Directors to issue stock acquisition rights and determine subscription requirements based on the provisions of Article 236, 238 and 239 of the Companies Act, as outlined below.

1. Reason for the necessity of subscription for persons who underwrite the stock acquisition rights on particularly advantageous terms

With the purpose of increasing the Company's business performance and shareholders' profit by increasing incentives for Executive Officers who do not serve as Directors of the Company, employees who hold senior management positions, or Presidents of subsidiaries, the Company will allocate stock acquisition rights to these persons, without a payment requirement.

2. Outline and maximum number of stock acquisition rights

(1) Maximum number of stock acquisition rights

Maximum shall be 1,500, determined as provided in item (3) below.

The total number of shares issuable by exercising the stock acquisition rights, shall be up to 150,000 of the Company's common shares, and in the case that the number of granted shares related to the relevant stock acquisition rights by (3) (b) below is adjusted, it shall be that number multiplied by the number of granted shares related to the relevant stock acquisition rights after adjustment by the above-written maximum number of stock acquisition rights.

(2) Payment shall not be required for granting of the stock acquisition rights.

(3) Outline of stock acquisition rights

(a) Persons to whom stock acquisition rights shall be allocated

Company's Board of Directors from among the Executive Officers who do not serve as Directors of the Company, employees who hold senior management positions, and Presidents of subsidiaries.

(b) Class and number of shares for the purpose of stock acquisition rights

Class of shares for the purpose of stock acquisition rights shall be common shares, and the number for the purpose of each stock acquisition right (hereinafter called "granted shares"), is to be limited to 100.

However, in the event of the Company's common stock split (including the gratis allotment of the stock) or share consolidation after the resolution by the General Meeting of Shareholders (hereinafter called "resolution date"), the number of granted shares related to the relevant stock acquisition rights shall be adjusted proportionally in accordance with the percentage of the share split or share consolidation.

In addition, if, after the resolution date, circumstances arise that unavoidably require adjustment of the number of granted shares related to the relevant stock acquisition rights such as in a case where the Company is merged with another company, executes a company split or stock exchange, or a case where the Company decreases capital, the number of granted shares related to the relevant stock acquisition rights shall be adjusted within a rational range, under consideration of conditions primarily including capital reduction.

Fractions of less than one (1) share as a result of the above adjustment are to be rounded down.

(c) Amount to be paid when stock acquisition rights are exercised

Amount to be paid when stock acquisition rights are exercised shall be the paid amount per share that can be issued by exercising the stock acquisition rights (hereinafter called "exercise amount"), multiplied by the anticipated number of shares concerning the relevant stock acquisition rights.

The exercise amount will be the average closing price, multiplied by 1.10, of the Company's common stock (hereinafter called "closing price") on the Tokyo Stock Exchange of the previous month of the date when the stock acquisition rights are allocated (hereinafter called "allotment date"). Note that the date when the trade was not effective is not included. Fractions of less than ¥1 will be rounded up.

However, in the case the amount is lower than the closing price of the allotment date (when no closing price is published on that day, closing price of the nearest previous date shall be applied), it will be the closing price on that date.

After the allotment date, in the event of a share split (including the gratis allotment of the stock) or share consolidation, the exercise amount will be adjusted by the following formula, with fractions of less than ¥1 rounded up.

[Translation for Reference and Convenience Purposes Only]

$$\text{Exercise price after adjustment} = \text{Exercise price before adjustment} \times \frac{1}{\text{Ratio of share split or consolidation}}$$

In addition, after the allotment date, for the Company's common stock, in the case the Company issues new shares or disposes of treasury stock at a price lower than market price [excluding sale of treasury stock based on provision of Article 194 of the Companies Act (demand for sale of less than minimum trading unit (tan-gen) of shares by a holder of shares less than minimum trading unit (tan-gen)); and transfer or exercise of securities that are or can be made to common stock of the Company or the stock acquisition rights (including ones committed to corporate bonds with new stock acquisition rights) that can be claimed for issue of the Company's common stock, the exercise price shall be adjusted in accordance with the following formula, with fractions of less than ¥1 rounded up.

In the above formula, the "number of shares outstanding" is the number of the Company's outstanding common stock, deducted by the number of shares of its treasury stock concerning common stock. In case the treasury stock is disposed, the "number of shares to be issued" shall be treated as the "number of shares to be disposed."

Furthermore, in the case the Company is merged with another company, executes a company split or share exchange, or in the case the Company decreases capital, after allotment date, that require adjustment of the exercise price, the exercise price shall be adjusted within a rational range, subject to a resolution of the Board of Directors.

- (d) Period during which stock acquisition rights may be exercised
It will be determined by the Board of Directors, which will be within a period from June 29, 2020 to June 23, 2028.
- (e) Capital and capital reserve increased in the case the stocks are issued by exercising the stock acquisition rights
 - i) The amount of capital increased in the case the shares are issued by exercising the stock acquisition rights shall be half of the maximum limit to increase capital, calculated in accordance with the Company Calculation Ordinance, Article 17, paragraph (1), with fractions rounded up.
 - ii) The amount of capital reserve increased in the case the shares are issued upon the exercise of stock acquisition rights shall be the amount that the maximum limits of capital, etc. described in i) above is subtracted by the increased capital amount determined in i) above.
- (f) Restrictions on acquisition of stock acquisition rights by transfer
Any acquisition of the stock acquisition rights by transfer shall require the prior approval of the Board of Directors.
- (g) Acquisition provision of stock acquisition rights
Acquisition provision of stock acquisition rights shall not be established.
- (h) The Company, in the case of merger (limited only to cases in which the Company is dissolved by merger), absorption-type company split/incorporation-type company split, share exchange or share transfer (all hereinafter called "organizational restructure"), may issue the stock acquisition rights of the companies listed in the Companies Act, Article 236, paragraph (1), item (8)-A to E (hereinafter called "restructure target company") to each person holding stock acquisition rights (hereinafter called "remaining stock acquisition rights") that remain outstanding at the time when the effects of the organizational restructure arises, for each case thereof, based on the following conditions. In this case, the remaining stock acquisition rights shall be void and the restructured target companies shall issue new stock acquisition rights. However, this will apply only to the case that a provision of issuance of the stock acquisition rights of the restructure target companies, in accordance with the following conditions, is provided in the absorption-type merger agreement, incorporation-type merger agreement, absorption-type split agreement, incorporation-type split plan, share exchange agreement, or share transfer plan.
 - i) Number of stock acquisition rights of restructured target companies
The same number of stock acquisition rights shall be issued as the number that the person

[Translation for Reference and Convenience Purposes Only]

- holds of remaining stock acquisition rights with respect to the Company's stock.
- ii) Class of shares of restructured target companies for the purpose of stock acquisition rights
It shall be the common stock of the restructured target companies.
- iii) Number of shares of restructured target companies for the purpose of stock acquisition rights
It shall be determined in accordance with the above item (b), after considering the conditions, etc. for organizational restructure.
- iv) Amount to be paid when stock acquisition rights are exercised Amount to be paid when each stock acquisition right is exercised shall be the amount obtained by multiplying the payout amount after restructure adjusted after considered conditions, etc. for the organizational restructure by the number of shares for the purpose of the relevant stock acquisition rights determined in accordance with the sentence iii).
- v) Exercise period of the stock acquisition rights
The stock acquisition rights determined in the above item (d) can be exercised from the later of: the commencement date of the exercise period of the stock acquisition rights determined in the above item (d); or the effective date of the organizational restructure, to the expiration date of the period.
- vi) Capital and capital reserve increased in the case the shares are issued by exercising the stock acquisition rights
It shall be determined in accordance with item (e) above.
- vii) Limits of acquisition of stock acquisition rights by assignment
Acquisition of stock acquisition rights by assignment shall require approval of the restructured target company.
- viii) Acquisition conditions of stock acquisition rights
It shall be determined in accordance with item (g) above.
- (i) In the case of fractions of less than one (1) share is included in the number of shares delivered to the persons who exercise the stock acquisition rights, the fractional portion shall be omitted.
- (j) Exercise conditions of stock acquisition rights
 - i) A single stock acquisition right may not be split.
 - ii) Persons who receive the allotment may exercise the right, even in the case that they no longer hold the position of Executive Officer of the Company, employees who hold senior management positions, or President of a subsidiary, when exercising the rights.
Note: The granted stock acquisition rights shall immediately be cancelled, in the case that he or she is sentenced to imprisonment or severer, in the case that he or she is dismissed or discharged, or in the case that he or she has died.
 - iii) Other conditions to exercise the rights shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

[Reference] Approaches to Corporate Governance

Basic Concept of Corporate Governance

MOL actively and continually strives to bolster its corporate governance to ensure sustainable growth and maximize mid- and long-term group corporate value based on the group's corporate philosophy and long-term vision, as well as the midterm management plan, by taking the following measures, etc.: 1) appointing two or more outside directors (For this year's ordinary general meeting of shareholders, the Company has submitted a proposal to appoint three outside directors.); 2) establishing Nomination Advisory Committee and Remuneration Advisory Committee, which are arbitrary organizations whose majority of members are outside directors, as advisory bodies to the Board of Directors; and, 3) establishing the Company's own criteria for judging independence, in addition to the requirements for independent officers stipulated by the Tokyo Stock Exchange. The ocean shipping business environment and risk factors change rapidly. As we set our course, we must accurately grasp business environment, always confront risks appropriately, and effectively utilize our management resources in a careful balance of offense and defense. We believe that the essentials of corporate governance are fostering sustainable growth and increasing corporate value by making decisions swiftly and boldly, guided by appropriate risk management, while ensuring the transparency and fairness of management by carefully considering the viewpoints of our diverse stakeholders and other various social requests.

MOL Corporate Governance Organizational Structure

We believe that the appropriate form of governance is to ensure the legality, appropriateness, and efficiency of business operations by ensuring an effective supervisory framework for the Board of Directors. This is accomplished while securing the audit function of the Audit & Supervisory Board, which is independent from the Board of Directors, and by having, as a matter of course, a mutual supervision and check mechanism between inside directors (directors also serving as executive officer) who execute operations, and a Board of Directors that consists of inside directors who carry out business operations and outside directors who do not execute operations but specialize in supervisory functions. Based on this view, MOL has become a company with an Audit & Supervisory Board as provided for in the Companies Act.

The Board of Directors, by its resolution, has established a basic policy for developing a system to secure the properness of operations (the internal control system) (revised on April 27, 2018). The MOL Group's officers and employees, under the president serving as the chief executive officer for management, carry out business operations in accordance with the management policy set by the Board of Directors and the above-mentioned basic policy, while being subject to supervision by the Board of Directors and audit by the Audit & Supervisory Board. (For details of the business operation system, please see the descriptions given in a later section.)

We believe that the essence of corporate governance lies not in the existence of its structure or organization described in the preceding paragraph, but in whether or not it functions properly and effectively in the manner outlined in the following sections.

“Deliberation on Corporate Strategy and Vision”

MOL’s “Deliberation on Corporate Strategy and Vision”

At MOL, three hours are set aside for every Board of Directors’ meeting, with one of the hours allotted to “Deliberation on Corporate Strategy and Vision.” At the “Deliberation on Corporate Strategy and Vision,” a theme is selected related to our management strategy, long-term vision or management in general. A free exchange of opinions is carried out at these deliberations which include outside directors and outside audit & supervisory board members.

FY2017 “Deliberation on Corporate Strategy and Vision”: Agenda Topics

	Agenda
May	MOL’s status in capital markets
July	Business strategy for the Port Projects & Logistics Business Division
September	Business strategy for the New Business Creation and Group Business Division
October	Review of MOL’s governance organizational structure (Primarily on evaluation of a company with an audit & supervisory committee)
December	Personnel structure reform
January	Basic policies for Rolling Plan 2018
February	Overall summary of Rolling Plan 2018

Nomination Advisory Committee and Remuneration Advisory Committee

MOL has established the Nomination Advisory Committee and the Remuneration Advisory Committee as arbitrary organizations under the Board of Directors. For making the outside directors supervise the executive directors more effectively, both committees are chaired by outside directors and are composed of all three (3) outside directors, the chairman, and the president as its members, with outside directors comprising the majority. The committees both seek to provide an objective standpoint, from the “perspective of shareholders,” to, in the case of Nomination Advisory Committee, examine the selection of directors and executive officers and, in the case of Remuneration Advisory Committee, to determine appropriate levels of remuneration for directors, including incentives for long-term enhancement of corporate value, and both report to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors respects the content of the report from the two Advisory Committees, and uses it in formulating necessary resolutions.

Effectiveness Evaluation

The Board of Directors, in accordance with the Corporate Governance Code, performs evaluations and analyses of its effectiveness each year through deliberations based on the results of self-questionnaires and questionnaires, and links the results to improvements in the operation of the Board of Directors.

In order to make effectiveness evaluations more beneficial, the Company performs a revision of the items to be evaluated every fiscal year to ensure a thorough evaluation, which may involve adding matters that are pertinent to the state of affairs of the fiscal year under review.

Business Operation System

With regard to business operations, MOL introduced the executive officer system in 2000. The executive officers, selected by the Board of Directors and assigned to various fields of authority by the representative directors, strive to improve the speed and efficiency of management by implementing Company operations in line with the uppermost policies determined by the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee (chaired by the President), as the top decision-making authority for business operations, functions as the deliberative body for important issues related to basic management plans and the conduct of business operations, based on policies determined by the Board of Directors. Under the Executive Committee, MOL has established six (6) committees. Executive officers and general managers concerned, in addition to committee members, attend each Meeting and examine and deliberate matters brought up for discussion.

Auditing System

The Audit & Supervisory Board consists of two (2) full-time audit & supervisory board members and two (2) outside audit & supervisory board members who hold no interest in MOL. The audit & supervisory board members periodically hold Audit & Supervisory Board's meetings to draw up audit plans and report and share audit results, etc. All audit & supervisory board members attend Board of Directors' meetings, and full-time audit & supervisory board members attend Executive Committee and various committees besides Board of Directors' meetings, to audit the processes of deliberation and decision making. KPMG AZSA LLC, a limited liability audit corporation, with which MOL has an audit contract, executes accounting auditing. In addition to the above, the Corporate Audit Division receives directions only from Executive Committee and is independent from any other management bodies. In this way, we audit the company's business operations including those of group companies, in collaboration with legal auditing executed by both the audit & supervisory board members and accounting auditors.

[Translation for Reference and Convenience Purposes Only]

Outside Officers

All five (5) of MOL's outside officers (three (3) outside directors and two (2) outside audit & supervisory board members) fulfill MOL's unique "Independence Criteria for Outside Officers" (page 16 and 17).

All three (3) outside directors provide advice regarding MOL's overall management from an independent position based on extensive experience and knowledge in their respective areas of expertise, fulfilling their role to strengthen the function of Board of Directors regarding its management decisions and supervision.

In addition to attending Board of Directors' meetings, outside directors deepen their understanding of the MOL Group's businesses through visiting ships operated by MOL Group and attendance at Group Executive Meetings (Held twice a year with attendance by representatives from domestic group companies. Bilateral discussions are conducted with agenda items that include those related to management plans.), reflecting these in their duties as outside directors.

The two (2) outside audit & supervisory board members have deep knowledge and insight as specialists in law and business management and have a role in strengthening MOL's audit structure from an independent position. In addition to attending Board of Directors' meetings and Audit & Supervisory Board's meetings, they interview inside directors and executive officers, meet periodically with the accounting auditor, and survey the MOL Group's bases of activity, including those overseas, to reflect knowledge gained via these activities in their duties as outside audit & supervisory board members.

BUSINESS REPORT

(From April 1, 2017 to March 31, 2018)

1. Matters Concerning the Present State of the Corporate Group

(1) Business Progress and Results

In the global economy during the fiscal year (FY) 2017 (April 1, 2017 to March 31, 2018), overall, a trend of stable expansion seen in the previous fiscal year continued to prevail. In the U.S. economy, there was ongoing recovery in personal consumption amid favorable employment and income environments, the corporate sector continued to recover in production and exports and a trend of expansion was maintained. In the European economy, personal consumption was firm amid improvement in the employment environment and a moderate recovery continued. The Chinese economy continued firmly with personal consumption expanding stably on the back of favorable employment and income environments, and exports also expanding on the tailwind of a recovering global economy. In Japan, economic recovery continued, with ongoing favorable employment and income environments and a continuing moderate recovery of personal consumption, along with a recovery in demand in the corporate sector both in Japan and overseas.

Looking at the maritime shipping market conditions, the dry bulker market proceeded at a higher level compared with the previous fiscal year, supported by strong cargo movements of iron ore, grain cargo from the east coast of South America, and coal, which is one of mainstay cargos. The very large crude oil carrier (VLCC) market, without a significant rise over the winter demand season, dropped below the previous fiscal year's levels even for the entire full year, against a backdrop of a surplus of vessels brought about by factors such as a vessel supply increase, delays in the progress of the retirement of aged vessels, and permeating adverse effects of decisions by OPEC countries to reduce oil production. In the containership freight market, there were observable improvements in the supply and demand environment on Asia-North America, Asia-Europe and Asia-South America trades, which facilitated a recovery in the spot freight rates. As described above, there were signs of recovery in some areas but due to an overall lack of briskness, a full-scale recovery has not eventuated.

The average exchange rate of Japanese yen against the U.S. dollar during the fiscal year depreciated by ¥2.51 year on year to ¥111.08. The average bunker price during the same period rose by US$70/MT year on year to US$354/MT.

The Company established a joint-venture company to integrate the container shipping business, Ocean Network Express Pte. Ltd. (ONE). In relation to the business integration, losses related to the charter-out of vessels to ONE, losses on liquidation of the Company's agencies, and others are projected to be incurred from FY2018 and afterwards. Therefore, the company has recorded a loss as "loss related to business restructuring", the majority of which is provisions for the above-mentioned future integration-related loss.

As a result of the above, although revenue of ¥1,652.3 billion, operating profit of ¥22.6 billion, and ordinary profit of ¥31.4 billion all were higher compared with the previous fiscal year, loss attributable to owners of parent was ¥47.3 billion.

- Notes: 1. Figures in revenues, ordinary profit, profit (loss) attributable to owners of parent, total assets and total net assets are rounded down to the nearest million.
2. On October 1, 2017, MOL conducted a consolidation of shares at a ratio of ten (10) shares for every one (1) share. Net income (loss) per share is calculated on the assumption that said consolidation of shares had been made at the beginning of FY2014.

(3) Business Overview by Segment

As a result of the reorganization implemented on April 1, 2017, we changed the business domains from “Bulkships,” “Containerships,” “Ferries and Coastal RoRo Ships” and “Associated Businesses” to “Dry Bulk Business,” “Energy Transport Business,” “Product Transport Business” and “Associated Businesses.” The following figures for FY2016 are restated by performing reclassification to conform to the business domains in FY2017.

Dry Bulk Business
Revenues	¥272.9 billion	Revenue composition ratio	16.52%
Ordinary profit (loss)	¥15.4 billion

[Major Business Lines]

Owning and operating bulk carriers and specialized vessels for specific cargo types, including dry cargo such as iron ore, coal, grains, wood, wood chips, cement, fertilizer, and salt.

[Overview of Market Conditions of FY2017]

- In the Capesize bulker market, although the market continued to fall for the first half of the fiscal year, it began rising together against a backdrop of increasing cargo volume of iron ore loaded in Brazil from the summer onward. The market proceeded firmly.
- The Panamax market proceeded firmly with a tight balance between supply and demand due to strong cargo movements of grain, particularly soy and corn, from the east coast of South America and coal which is one of mainstay cargos.
- In accordance with the pick-up in the overall dry bulker market, the markets for the Handymax and smaller-sized bulkers also proceeded firmly.
- The overall Dry Bulk Business recorded a stable ordinary profit due partly to the effect of the business structural reforms.

[Major Initiatives]

- Acquisition of new contracts and contract extensions with a focus on medium- to long-term transport contracts with domestic and overseas customers (including conclusion of new five-year contract for the transport of bauxite from Guinea).
- Continued joint research and consideration toward construction of LNG-fueled capesize bulkers.

[Translation for Reference and Convenience Purposes Only]

Energy Transport Business
Revenues	¥270.9 billion	Revenue composition ratio	16.40%
Ordinary profit (loss)	¥13.6 billion

[Major Business Lines]

- Owning and operating tankers such as crude oil tankers; product tankers that carry naphtha, gasoline and other refined petroleum products; and chemical tankers that carry liquid chemical products.
- Owning and operating LNG carriers that carry liquified natural gas, and development of offshore businesses such as FPSO (floating production, storage and offloading system) and FSRU (floating storage and regasification unit).
- Owning and operating steaming coal carriers for the transport of coal for thermal power generation.

[Overview of Market Conditions of FY2017]

● Tanker Business

- The very large crude oil carrier (VLCC) market did not rise over the winter demand period and dropped below the previous fiscal year's levels, even for the entire year due to weak demand against a backdrop of a vessel supply increase and permeating adverse effects of decisions by OPEC countries to reduce oil production.
- The product tanker market proceeded weakly as the balance between supply and demand deteriorated overall due to factors such as a slowdown in cargo movements along with increased new vessel deliveries. The LPG carrier market for the full year was roughly the same level as the previous fiscal year.
- The overall tanker division experienced a profit decrease year on year, but nevertheless achieved profitability against a backdrop of stable profits from long-term contracts.

● LNG Carrier/Offshore Business

- The LNG carrier division received delivery of five new vessels, including one for the world's first ice-breaking LNG carrier project. The division achieved profitability due to the steady increase of stable profits accompanying the operation of existing projects.
- The offshore business division recorded a stable ordinary profit, brought about by operations of one new FPSO and one new FSRU in addition to the existing projects.

● Steaming Coal Carrier

- Cargo movements proceeded firmly for coal for thermal power generation in Japan, and medium- to long-term contracts maintained high utilization. Profitability for short-term contracts also improved due to improvement in the spot market, increasing profits year on year.

[Major Initiatives]

● Tanker Business

- Conclusion of new contracts for customers in Japan and overseas.
- Improve operation efficiency and continuously cut costs through pool arrangements.

● LNG Carrier

- Received delivery for the first ship in the world's first ice-breaking LNG carrier project. Begin first loading and lading at the port of Sabetta in Russia.

● Offshore Business

- Participate in construction of new FSRU project (LNG receiving terminal construction and operation project), the first of its kind in India.

[Major Business Lines]

- Owning and operating containerships, container terminals, air and sea forwarding, land transport, warehousing services, services for the transport of heavy goods, etc., and offering total logistics solutions through the above.
- Owning and operating specialized car carriers for the transport of completed cars and construction machinery and development of comprehensive car transport services such as land transport and terminal operation.
- Transporting passengers and cargos by operating ferries in inshore Pacific and Seto Inland Sea.

[Overview of Market Conditions of FY2017]

• Containerships

- The spot freight market on the Asia-North America trades proceeded firmly overall over the full year under the circumstances that movement of cargo shifted at the record high pace.
- On the Asia-Europe trades, while there was a significant recovery in cargo volume, the spot freight rates remain relatively stable due to new deployments of large-sized vessels.
- On the Asia-East Coast of South America trades, cargo volumes recovered sharply as a result of a pick-up in the Brazilian economy, and spot freight rates, which sharply rose from the beginning of spring, made a significant contribution to improving profitability.
- Needing to make use of the increased space provided by the launches of large containerships, the division energetically secured annual contracts in the beginning of spring, thereby limiting the amount of profits received from spot freight rates, which had risen from summer onward on the Asia-North America trades and the Asia-Europe trades.
- The ordinary loss in the containership business overall was improved year on year due to factors such as the effect of launches of large containerships.

• Car Carriers

- Although the transportation volume of completed cars continued to be firm to North America, Asia and Oceania, recovery of operations to the resource-producing countries is lagging under the current climate of sluggish resource prices. The division made progress reducing the number of ships and improving operation efficiency and achieved an operating profit that exceeded last year's performance.

• Ferries and Coastal RoRo Ships

- The cargo volume was firm as a result of further accelerated modal shift, which reflects changes in the trucking labor situation such as shortage and aging of the workforce, and tighter labor controls.
- Promotion activities selling the concept of casual cruises were successful in increasing passengers, and as a result, operations proceeded firmly, particularly for the Seto Inland Sea trade and the South Kyushu trade.
- Ordinary profit was down year on year due mainly to a rise in the bunker price and long-term sailing cancellations owing to trouble on some ferries.

[Major Initiatives]

• Containerships

- The alliance on east-west operated trades was restructured. Services started under a new partnership, THE Alliance, by five (5) companies from April 2017.
- Established Ocean Network Express Pte. Ltd. containership joint venture from three (3) Japanese shipping companies with services beginning in April 2018.
- In the terminal business, initiatives such as expansion construction at the port of Oakland in the U.S. and construction of the Lach Huyen terminal in Vietnam opening in May 2018 are proceeding solidly.
- The logistics business has been working to expand its business reach in areas including Southeast Asia,

India, and North America, while making a capital contribution to a tank container operator that is projected to provide deep synergies with the MOL Group.

● Car Carriers

- Received delivery of the first ship in the FLEXIE Series, a next-generation car carrier that can respond to the diversifying transport demand and environment.
- Reducing aged vessels, improving operational efficiency in response to changing trade patterns in respect to vessels and space flexibility, etc., among Group companies.

● Ferries and Coastal RoRo Ships

- Launch of two (2) new ferries on the Hokkaido trade.
- Strengthen promotions for two (2) new ferries scheduled to begin service on the South Kyushu trade during FY2018.
- With the aim of further advancing recognition of casual cruises, enhance marketing activities targeted at cruise customers by leveraging ICT.

Ordinary profit (loss)	¥12.6 billion

[Major Business Lines]

Real estate business, cruise ship business, tugboat business, trading business (fuel, vessel materials, sales of machinery, etc.), HR and staffing business, etc.

[Overview of Market Conditions of FY2017]

- The cruise ship business recorded a year-on-year decrease in ordinary profit due mainly to the effect of cruise cancellations because of the impact of typhoons, despite healthy passenger sales for the Nippon Maru.
- In the real estate business, ordinary profit increased year on year owing mainly to Daibiru Corporation, the core company in the MOL Group's real estate business, increasing its sales on the back of the firm office leasing market, centered on the Tokyo metropolitan area.
- Other associated businesses, such as the tugboat and trading businesses, also showed firm performances overall.
- Ordinary profit of the Associated Businesses segment increased on a year-on-year basis.

[Major Initiatives]

- The cruise ship business held the Flying Cruise Kyushu: Tour Around Kyushu as a joint program with JTB KYUSHU Corp. (currently JTB Corp.) The tour tied together all seven (7) prefectures in Kyushu with one route, receiving high praise from the transport and tourism industries in addition to local municipalities.
- Ordered an LNG-fueled tugboat in the tugboat business with a scheduled launch date of April 2019.

(5) Management Strategies and Issues to be Addressed

Management Plan "Rolling Plan 2018"

MOL formulated the "Rolling Plan 2017" management plan that started in FY2017. While upholding a mindset of disciplined financial management, MOL is giving priority of its investment of management resources to businesses and projects in which the MOL Group has a competitive advantage with the aim of accumulating stable profit for the future.

This policy will be maintained in FY2018, and MOL has formulated "Rolling Plan 2018," which further deepens the content of these measures. Toward achieving the vision for the MOL Group 10 years from now, the following measures will be executed as pillars for the three long-term objectives of "providing stress-free services," "developing the environment and emission-free business into one of our future core businesses," and becoming the "most competitive business conglomerate."

1. Vision for the MOL Group 10 years from now

- Provide "stress-free services that are truly convenient for customers worldwide," with the aim of "serving customers as a solid and reliable partner at all times."
- Develop the environment and emission-free business into one of our future core businesses.
- Become the "most competitive business conglomerate" by selecting and focusing on comparatively strong businesses.

[Translation for Reference and Convenience Purposes Only]

2. Strategies for realizing the vision

(1) Investment and business strategies

- Continuing from FY2017, focus new investments on high-priority projects and conduct both investments and disciplined financial management.
- In the marine transport business division, invest management resources effectively, focusing on business fields where MOL has an advantage and where there is potential for solid earnings.
- In the marine associated business divisions, including the offshore business, ferry business, and logistics businesses, expand and strengthen business areas with potential for growth.

(2) Deepening long-term objectives and strengthening price competitiveness

- Discern customer needs by going beyond previous sales activity frameworks to provide solutions that also utilize digital solutions (stress-free services).
- In consideration of customer opinions, heighten cost competitiveness in areas such as fleet costs and administrative costs to improve MOL's price competitiveness.
- Revise organizations and structures to aggressively promote measures to achieve targets.

(3) Refine themes for significant areas for improvement to support long-term objectives

As significant areas for improvement, MOL will continue with measures in the five (5) total areas of enhancing marine technical skills, utilizing ICT, technological development, the environment and emission-free business, and work-style reforms to organically tie these together. In FY2018, the second year of such activities, MOL will refine focus themes for each area, and promote measures to ensure their fruition.

Medium- to Long-Term Profit Levels and Key Financial Indicators and Shareholder Returns

Medium- to Long-Term Profit Levels and Key Financial Indicators

	Projected medium-term levels	2027 Targets
Ordinary Profit	¥80.0-¥100.0 billion	¥150.0-¥200.0 billion
ROE	8-12%	-
Gearing Ratio	2.0 or less	1.0

In addition to realizing an improved bottom line and profitable operations in the containership business following that business's integration, MOL is further accruing stable profits in the Dry Bulk Business, tanker division, as well as the LNG carrier division and offshore business, which have great growth potential, by paying attention to investment efficiency and pursuing medium- to long-term contracts. Furthermore, MOL will also be expanding and strengthening business in the chemical tanker business and ferry business due to its strengths in these fields. MOL believes such measures are a path that will lead to improvement in MOL's profitability and financial indices.

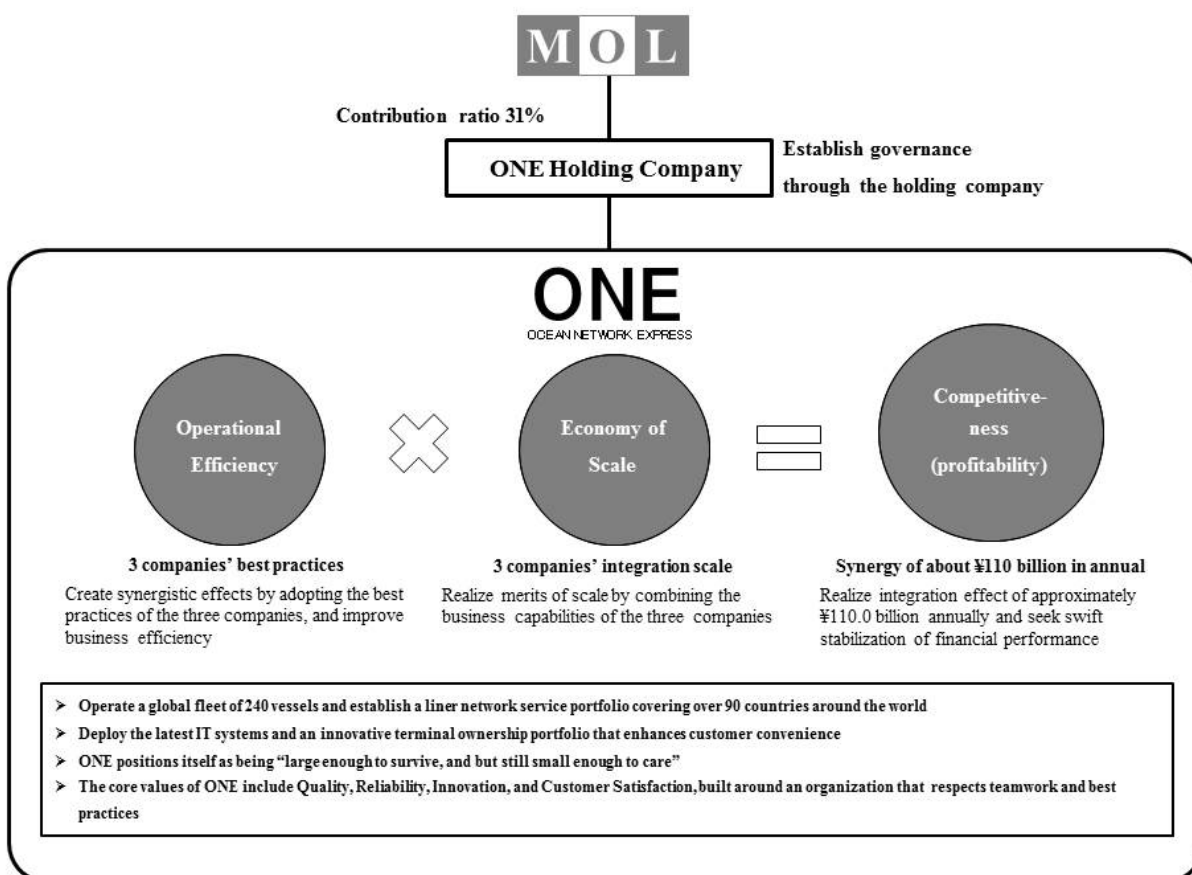

Shareholder Returns

In the near term, pay dividends with a 20% dividend payout ratio as a guideline, while working to improve the ratio as a medium- and long-term priority.

Integration of Container Shipping Businesses

After the integration of the container shipping businesses, Ocean Network Express will become an equity method affiliate with a percentage of equity participation of 31%, but the containerships business will continue to be positioned as a core business for MOL.

Of the six (6) directors serving at the holding company for Ocean Network Express, two (2) are persons on assignment from MOL, and MOL will continue to strengthen governance through this holding company in the future.

[Translation for Reference and Convenience Purposes Only]

Establishment of Technology Innovation Unit

As a new measure, MOL established the Technology Innovation Unit. Toward realizing the provision of stress-free services, MOL will not place sole focus on rapid technological development, but discover latent customer needs and plant technological seeds to match, aiming to create a new revolution in logistics. For the foreseeable future, the new unit's strategies will focus on the following three fields.

Promotion of LNG-fueled Vessels

- Objectives:
 - 1) Take steps to respond to stricter NOx/SOx regulations
 - 2) Prevent global warming by promoting the adoption of LNG fuel
- Studying newbuilding of LNG-fueled vessels such as dry bulkers, car carriers, and ferries
- An LNG bunker vessel is under construction and expected to be delivered in 2020

Promotion of Wind Challenger Project

- Wind Challenger = The next-generation sailing vessel with solid wing sails assisted by the main propulsion system
- In 2018, select a vessel to be equipped with sails, and setting delivery of the equipment in 2020 following completion of a detailed design

Promotion of Autonomous Sailing

- Objectives:
 - 1) Prevent human error
 - 2) Respond to a shortage of seafarers in the future
 - 3) Improve service quality by visualizing cargo status and sharing timely operational information
 - 4) Reduce environmental impact by selecting optimal routes
- Set a goal of achieving autonomous sailing by 2025-2030

Issues to be Addressed

Regarding the integration of container shipping businesses with Nippon Yusen Kabushiki Kaisha and Kawasaki Kisen Kaisha, Ltd. agreed in October 2016, MOL has been diligently advancing preparations, and the Ocean Network Express joint venture began operations in April 1, 2018. To enable Ocean Network Express to demonstrate synergies from the integration as soon as possible, MOL will cooperate under appropriate governance as a shareholder in establishing the business base of Ocean Network Express.

Since 2012, the MOL Group is the subject of investigations by the antitrust authorities in the U.S. and other countries, on the suspicion of violations of each country's competition laws with respect to ocean transport services of completed build-up vehicles. In addition, a class-action lawsuit was filed in the U.S. and other countries against the MOL Group, for damage claims, a cease and desist order for the questioned conduct. The MOL Group takes this situation very seriously, and will continue to work to enhance compliance, including compliance with antitrust laws of respective nations, as well as strive to prevent recurrence.

(2) Outline of the limited liability contract

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 427, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act, the Company has entered into contracts with outside officers that limit their liability as set forth in Article 423, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act to the total of the amounts set forth in items of Article 425, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act, if they perform their duties in good faith and without significant negligence.

(3) Remunerations Paid to Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members

By reference to companies in the same industry and companies of the same size in other industries, the Company has developed a system of remunerations for Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members that is suited for securing human resources, having a link with the Company's business performance designed to motivate Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members to achieve performance goals, and also ensuing a link with a medium- to a long-term corporate value. In addition, the Company has established Remuneration Advisory Committee that consists of all three Outside Directors and Representative Director-Chairman Executive Officer and Representative

[Translation for Reference and Convenience Purposes Only]

Director-President, Chief Executive Officer who were appointed by a resolution of the Board of Directors as committee members, and is chaired by an outside director to deliberate a structure for remunerations and other compensation packages for directors (including outside directors), calculation method thereof, as well as remunerations and other compensation packages of each individual.

Based on the aforementioned, the remuneration for directors consists of monthly remuneration, bonus based on operating performance for a single fiscal year, and stock option linked to medium- and long-term corporate value. As monthly remuneration, the Company provides directors with a monthly fixed amount, which varies, depending on the level of a director's position. Bonus, which is paid in June every year, comprises a base amount by position levels, which is determined based on the level of performance of the entire company's business results, plus compensation added for individuals achieving the performance results of a division in charge. Stock option, which is granted in August every year, is determined based on each director's position.

Audit & supervisory board members' remuneration is determined within the limit stipulated at a general meeting of shareholders, with consideration given to whether full time or part time, conditions for audit work assigned, and directors' remuneration levels and contents, and through discussions among audit & supervisory board members.

Bonuses and stock option are not provided to audit & supervisory board members.

Category	Number of Persons Remunerated	Total Amount of Remunerations by Type (¥ million)			Total Amount of Remunerations Paid (¥ million)

iv) Rules and Other Systems Concerning Management of Risk that May Cause Losses

In preparation for major risks that may cause losses, the Company establishes the following control systems, and the Executive Committee functions as a body to comprehensively manage all risks.

(a) Risks concerning maritime shipping market trends

In the marine transportation field, the Company's principal business, the shipping tonnage supply-demand is influenced by trends in the volume of global seaborne trades and supply of vessels, and freight rates and charter hire rates fluctuate. Hence, such material issues as investment in ships and others are brought to a decision-making body, after the Investment and Finance Committee set up as a primary deliberative organ of the Executive Committee understands, analyzes and evaluates risks.

(b) Safe operation of ships

The Operational Safety Committee, that has been set up as a subordinate organ of the Executive Committee and led by the President, Chief Executive Officer, reviews and deliberates issues concerning safe operation based on the rules of the Operational Safety Committee, in order to secure and thoroughly implement the safe operation of ships. Should an accident occur, it prevents damage from expanding and protects the environment in accordance with the rules of the Emergency Control Headquarters.

(c) Market risks

Market risks including fluctuations of bunker prices, exchange rates and interest rates are reduced with appropriate management based on the rules of market risk management.

v) System to Secure Efficient Execution of Duties by Directors and Executive Officers

(a) The Board of Directors meets approximately 10 times per year with appropriate intervals between meetings, and as necessary. Material matters to be brought to the Board of Directors are, in general, deliberated in the Executive Committee in advance based on the rules of the Board of Directors.

(b) The Executive Committee consists of members appointed by the President, Chief Executive Officer and approved by the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee meets once a week in general, and as necessary, based on the rules of the Executive Committee. Furthermore, if required, the Executive Committee sets up a subcommittee to consult about necessary matters.

(c) Executive officers are appointed by the Board of Directors, take over authorities transferred by representative directors based on rules of executive officers, and perform their duties in accordance with the uppermost policies decided by the Board of Directors regarding all aspects of corporate management, based on the division of duties by organization and the administrative authority of each position stipulated in the organizational rules.

vi) System to Secure the Reliability of Financial Reporting

(a) In attempt to secure appropriate accounting and enhance the reliability of financial reporting, the rules for accounting shall be prescribed while a system of internal control over financial reporting shall be established and steps shall be taken to enhance the effectiveness of the system.

(b) The Corporate Audit Division evaluates the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. The department receiving the evaluation implements measures for correction or improvement as necessary.

vii) System to Secure the Propriety of Business Carried Out by the Group Consisting of the Company and its Subsidiaries

(a) In an attempt to secure the propriety of business carried out by the Group companies, the group corporate principles are advocated, and each Group company prescribes various rules based on it.

(b) With regard to the business management of the Group companies, the status of executing business operations at each company shall be supervised based on the management plan and annual budget of the entire Group. In addition, a division of the Company shall be established to be responsible for the business management of each Group company, depending on the nature of each company's business operation. Based on the rules of the Group companies' business management, a head of the division shall receive necessary reports in a timely manner from directors, etc. of the Group companies to properly understand the management status and business risks. In addition, the head of the division shall require the Group companies to carry out material matters about management of the Group companies with the Company's approval, and allocate necessary managerial resources in a timely and appropriate manner to ensure that directors, etc. of the Group companies will perform their duties efficiently. For the Group companies classified as quasi internal organizations in accordance with the organizational rules, however, a relevant officer shall perform the said procedures, instead of the head of the division.

[Translation for Reference and Convenience Purposes Only]

- (c) To secure compliance among the Group companies, each Group company prescribes various rules conforming to the Company's Compliance Policy including the code of conduct. The Compliance Advisory Service Desk provides officers and employees of the Group companies with consultation service, about the compliance program as properly applicable to the entire Group. The Company requests the Group companies to guarantee that reports and consultations concerning compliance violation by officers or employees of the Group are held in strict confidence and any individual initiating such report or consultation will not suffer any disadvantageous treatment for such report or consultation made.
 - (d) As for the audits of the Group companies, each Group company appropriately establishes an internal audit system, and the Corporate Audit Division of the Company conducts internal audits of the Group companies on a periodical basis and as necessary based on the internal audit rules.
- viii) Dedicated Staff Members to Assist in the Audit & Supervisory Board Members' Duties and Their Independence
- (a) To assist in the audit & supervisory board members' duties, assistants for audit & supervisory board members are appointed among the Company's employees.
 - (b) Personnel evaluation of assistants for audit & supervisory board members is conducted by the audit & supervisory board members, and the transfer of assistants for audit & supervisory board members is decided with approval of the Audit & Supervisory Board.
 - (c) In general, assistants for audit & supervisory board members shall not be concurrently involved in business execution.
- ix) System Concerning Reports to the Audit & Supervisory Board Members Including a Reporting System from Directors, Executive Officers, Employees and Others Concerning Reports to the Audit & Supervisory Board Members, and System to Ensure that the Audit is Effectively Conducted by the Audit & Supervisory Board Members
- (a) Rules are prescribed on matters to be reported to the audit & supervisory board members by directors, executive officers and employees. Based on those rules, directors, executive officers and employees shall report to the audit & supervisory board members on material matters that may have an impact on the Company's businesses or performance. Directors, audit & supervisory board members, executive officers and employees of the Group companies may report to the audit & supervisory board members on material matters that may have an impact on businesses or performance of the Company or the Group.
 - (b) By maintaining the appropriate operation of reporting and consultation service systems based on the Compliance Policy, the appropriate reporting system to the audit & supervisory board members on issues concerning compliance such as violation of laws is secured. The Company guarantees that reports to and consultations with any audit & supervisory board member concerning compliance violation by officers or employees of the Group are held in strict confidence and any individual initiating such report or consultation will not suffer any disadvantageous treatment for such report or consultation made.
 - (c) Representative directors make efforts to have regular meetings with the audit & supervisory board members.
 - (d) The Corporate Audit Division shall cooperate in the effective implementation of the audit by the audit & supervisory board members, while keeping in contact and coordinating with the audit & supervisory board members.
 - (e) When an audit & supervisory board member requests an advance payment for expenses, etc. relating to execution of their duties in accordance with Article 388 of the Companies Act, such expense or liability requested to be paid shall be processed accordingly unless such expense or liability requested to be paid is deemed unnecessary for executing duties of the audit & supervisory board member.

(2) Overview of Status of Operating System to Secure Propriety of Operations

The Company has been appropriately managing the system to secure propriety of operations of the Company as described above. There are no issues to report.

The following is an overview of the status of the operating system to secure the appropriateness of operations.

i) Compliance

- (a) MOL has internal regulations including the code of conduct for officers and employees of the Company and the Compliance Policy. The Company also holds internal training, seminars, e-learning training, and other learning activities for officers and employees to provide a better understanding of those rules and their awareness of compliance.

[Translation for Reference and Convenience Purposes Only]

- (b) The Company has appointed Compliance Officers who are responsible for enforcing compliance regulations within divisions and offices, and Chief Compliance Officer who is accountable for developing and strengthening the compliance structure, as well as supervising Compliance Officers, thereby clarifying the personnel accountable for compliance. In addition, the Company has established the Compliance Committee as a subordinate organization of the Executive Committee. The Compliance Committee holds regular meetings and acts to enhance and strengthen the compliance structure across the Company, as well as make decisions on measures for compliance violations.
- (c) The Company has established an internal Compliance Advisory Service Desk, which handles consultations and reports from officers and employees of the Company and the Group companies, as well as an external Compliance Advisory Service Desk. In the event compliance violations are reported or identified, the desks immediately take the necessary measures. In addition, they ensure that reports and consultations are held in strict confidence, and do not become the basis for any disadvantage treatment.

ii) Corporate Governance

- (a) The Board of Directors, as the Company's primary decision-making body, discusses and decides the most important matters connected with MOL Group management, as well as supervises business operations. The Board of Directors held 10 meetings during the fiscal year under review.
- (b) In order to ensure the further effectiveness of the supervision of executive directors by independent outside directors, the Company established the Nomination Advisory Committee and the Remuneration Advisory Committee, both comprising the Chairman, President and all the independent outside directors, of which independent outside directors form a majority of the members of both committees. These Committees discuss matters related to the selection and dismissal of directors and executive officers, remuneration and their treatment, and report to the Board of Directors.
- (c) In a bid to make the Board of Directors focus on critical matters, important matters in basic business plans and execution of business operations are discussed and determined by the Executive Committee, which generally meets weekly. Executive officers appointed by the Board of Directors and delegated authority from the Representative Director execute operations based on decisions made by the Executive Committee, thereby enhancing efficiency and accelerating business execution.
- (d) The Company and the Group companies regularly report the status of their businesses at important internal meetings including meetings of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee, and provide timely instructions to relevant divisions on the occurrence of issues and problems requiring solutions.

iii) Risk Management

- (a) The Company set up the Investment and Finance Committee as a preliminary deliberative organ of the Executive Committee. The Committee holds a meeting every week, in principle, and understands, analyzes, and evaluates risks, reporting the results to the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee for their decision-making.
- (b) Assets of the Company and the Group companies are systematically analyzed in terms of risks of fluctuations of their value, and quantitatively analyzed results are reported to the Board of Directors regularly. After assessing and analyzing the quantitative value of risks provided by reports, the Board of Directors and other decision-making bodies make investment decisions, and control risks for all businesses of the MOL Group.
- (c) To prevent risks in shipping operations, MOL conducts regular inspections in accordance with its own safety standards, which are applied to all operating ships, and works on initiatives to secure and develop marine technical specialists who undertake safe operations. While enhancing the safety of operations of MOL Group's vessels through these initiatives, the Company performs research and development and other projects to adopt cutting-edge technologies, including ICT, to supplement its human capacity and secure safe operations.
- (d) Pursuant to the provision stipulated in the Japanese Financial Instruments and Exchange Act, MOL evaluates the effectiveness of its internal control operations to secure the credibility of its financial reports, and confirms appropriate operation of its internal control systems.

[Translation for Reference and Convenience Purposes Only]

iv) Management of MOL Group companies

- (a) MOL has established regulations including Group Company Management Regulations and Group Company Management Practical Guidelines, aiming at appropriately managing MOL Group companies. In addition, MOL addresses any important business items of MOL Group companies, as matters to be approved by MOL, as well as receives reports on the progress of their business plans, etc., and provides guidance and advice appropriately, thereby improving the corporate value of the MOL entire group. Furthermore, twice a year, MOL holds a Group Executive Meeting attended by the MOL President, MOL management people, and representatives of MOL Group companies, and enhances the sharing and confirmation of management goals and thorough assurance of compliance regulations. With these initiatives, MOL oversees the business operations of MOL Group companies.
- (b) MOL Group companies have formulated their own compliance systems, in accordance with their corporate scales and industrial categories as independent corporations. In the event that MOL Group companies have any incidents regarded as violations of compliance, the companies follow their own internal regulations, immediately act to implement remedies, and take measures to prevent re-occurrence, while MOL takes the necessary actions for reporting to the MOL Compliance Committee, etc.

v) Audit & Supervisory Board Members

- (a) The Company has appointed Staff for Audit & Supervisory Board to support the duties of the Audit & Supervisory Board and audit & supervisory board members, placing one employee to engage exclusively in providing support. To ensure independence from directors and effectiveness of instructions of audit & supervisory board members, audit & supervisory board members concur with the said employee's performance appraisal, and the Audit & Supervisory Board concurs with the said employee's transfer.
- (b) The Company assures full-time audit & supervisory board members attend meetings of the Executive Committee, Investment and Finance Committee, and other committees, in addition to meetings of the Board of Directors, ensuring the execution of their audits of management discussions and decision-making processes. Furthermore, audit & supervisory board members have regular meetings with directors and executive officers to have a common understanding of management issues and risks, in order to ensure appropriate business operations.

vi) Internal Audit

MOL draws up an audit plan every fiscal year and conducts internal audits of its headquarters organizations and domestic and international MOL Group companies, and reports audit results to the Executive Committee. In case internal audit results identify issues and problems requiring remedies, MOL acts to achieve a resolution by giving instructions to relevant divisions appropriately.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Significant Matters for Basis of Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements

1. Scope of consolidation

- (1) Number of consolidated subsidiaries: 369
- (2) Names of principal consolidated subsidiaries are as stated in “1. Matters Concerning the Present State of the Corporate Group, (10) Principal Subsidiaries.”
- (3) Name of principal non-consolidated subsidiary: Asia Cargo Service Co., Ltd.
- (4) Reason for exclusion from the scope of consolidation
Total assets, total operating revenues, net income (based on the Group’s equity interest) and retained earnings (based on the Group’s equity interest) of non-consolidated subsidiaries are not significant respectively, and do not have a material impact on the consolidated statutory reports.

2. Application of equity method accounting

- (1) Number of equity method affiliates: 80
- (2) Names of principal equity method affiliates are as stated in “1. Matters Concerning the Present State of the Corporate Group, (11) Principal Equity Method Affiliates.”
- (3) Name of principal non-consolidated subsidiary that is not accounted under the equity method:
Asia Cargo Service Co., Ltd.
- (4) Name of principal affiliate that is not accounted under the equity method:
Sorami Container Center Co., Ltd.
- (5) Reason for exclusion from the scope of applying the equity method accounting
Net income and retained earnings (based on the Group’s equity interest) of non-consolidated subsidiaries and affiliates that are not accounted under the equity method are not significant.

3. Changes in scope of consolidation and application of equity method

- (1) Scope of consolidation
15 companies, including Appleland Shipping Inc. which was newly established, have been newly included in the scope of consolidation from this fiscal year. 14 companies including Japan Express Packing & Transport Co., Ltd., which had been a consolidated subsidiary, were excluded from the scope of consolidation due to their liquidation and other reasons.
- (2) Scope of applying the equity method accounting
5 companies including Ocean Network Express Holdings, Ltd., which is a newly established company, have been newly accounted under the equity method from this fiscal year. Shanghai Longfei International Logistics Co., Ltd., which had been an equity method affiliate, has been excluded from the scope of equity method application due to sale of shares.

4. Significant accounting policies

(1) Bases and methods of valuation of assets

Securities

Trading securities

Market value method (Costs of securities sold are determined based on the moving-average method)

Held-to-maturity debt securities

Amortized cost method

Other securities

Available-for-sale securities

with market value

Market value method based on the market price as of the closing date

(Unrealized gains/losses are recorded in equity. Costs of securities sold are determined mainly based on the moving-average method)

without market value

Stated at cost mainly based on the moving-average method

Derivative transactions

Market value method

Inventories (Fuel and supplies)

Stated at cost mainly based on the moving-average method (Amounts on the balance sheet are measured at the lower of cost or net realizable value)

(2) Depreciation methods for fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets (excluding leased assets)

Vessels

Mainly straight-line method (Declining-balance method for a part of vessels)

Buildings and structures

Mainly straight-line method

Other tangible fixed assets

Mainly declining-balance method

Intangible fixed assets (excluding leased assets) Straight-line method

Internal use software is depreciated by the straight line method, based on the estimated useful life of 5 years.

Goodwill is amortized equally over 5 years, in general.

Leased assets

Leased assets under finance leases that transfer ownership are depreciated consistently as fixed assets that the Group owns.

Leased assets under finance leases other than those that transfer ownership are depreciated using the straight-line method, based on lease terms and residual value of zero.

(3) Accounting treatment for deferred assets

Bond issue expenses

Expensed as incurred

Stock issue expenses

Expensed as incurred

[Translation for Reference and Convenience Purposes Only]

(4) Accounting for allowances

Allowance for doubtful accounts

Allowance for general receivables is based on historical default rate.

Allowance for specific receivables, such as individual doubtful receivables, is based on the individual likelihood of default.

Allowance for bonuses

Allowance for bonuses to employees is based on the estimated amount of future payments attributed to the fiscal year.

Allowance for directors' bonuses

The Company and several domestic consolidated subsidiaries record allowances for bonuses to directors based on the estimated amount of future payments.

Allowance for loss on contracts

Allowance for loss on contracts is based on the estimated amounts of loss on contracts with future higher probability of loss to be incurred due to a decision made over contracts, etc.

Allowance for loss related to business restructuring

Allowance for loss related to business restructuring is based on the estimated amounts of loss related to business restructuring.

Allowance for directors' and audit & supervisory board members' retirement benefits

Several domestic consolidated subsidiaries record allowances for payments of retirement benefits to directors and audit & supervisory board members based on amounts to adequately cover payments at the end of the fiscal year, in accordance with internal regulations.

Allowance for periodic drydocking

Allowance for periodic drydocking is based on the estimated amount of repairs of vessels.

Allowance for environmental measures

Allowance for disbursement associated with polychlorinated biphenyl (PCB) waste is based on the estimated amounts of future obligations.

(5) Recognition of freight revenues and related expenses

Containerships: Recognized by the multiple transportation progress method.

Vessels other than containerships: Recognized mainly by the completed-voyage method.

(6) Hedge accounting

Hedge accounting

The Company mainly adopts deferral hedge accounting. The Company adopts special accounting rules for interest swaps that meet the requirements of special accounting rules.

Hedging instruments and hedged items

Means for hedging

Loans payable in foreign currencies

Forward foreign exchange contracts

Currency option contracts

Currency swap contracts

Interest rate swap contracts

Interest rate cap contracts

Fuel oil swap contracts

Freight futures

Hedged items

Future transactions in foreign currencies

Future transactions in foreign currencies

Future transactions in foreign currencies

Charter fees and loans payable in foreign currencies

Interest on loans and bonds payable

Interest on loans

Fuel oil

Freight

Hedging policy

The hedging derivative transactions are executed and managed by the Company mainly in accordance with established policies, "Market Risk Management Policy" and "Guideline for Market Risk Management," clarifying hedged items by individual case, in order to hedge risks of currency exchange rate fluctuations, interest rate fluctuations, or changes in prices against relevant hedged items.

[Translation for Reference and Convenience Purposes Only]

Method of evaluating the effectiveness of hedges

The Company evaluates hedge effectiveness mainly by comparing the cumulative changes in cash flows from or the changes in fair value of hedged items, and the cumulative changes in cash flows from or the changes in fair value of hedging instruments during the period from commencement of hedging to the point of evaluating effectiveness, based on changes in both amounts and others. As for interest swap contracts meeting the requirement for special treatment, the evaluation of hedge effectiveness is omitted.

(7) Interest expense is generally expensed as incurred. However, interest expense for assets which are constructed over a long term and are significant in terms of investment, is included in acquisition cost.

(8) Other significant matters for the preparation of consolidated financial statements

Accounting for retirement benefits

Net defined benefit assets/liabilities are recorded based on estimates of retirement benefit obligations and pension assets as of the end of the fiscal year. Unrecognized actuarial gains/losses are amortized by the straight-line method over a period that does not exceed the employees' estimated remaining service period (generally 10 years) from the next fiscal year. Prior service costs are generally expensed as incurred.

Accounting for consumption taxes

Consumption tax and similar local taxes are excluded from income and expense.

Notes to Changes in Presentations

(Consolidated statements of income)

Gain on sale of shares of subsidiaries and associates (¥186 million in this fiscal year), which was separately disclosed in the previous fiscal year, is included in "Others" in Extraordinary income in this fiscal year, due to the decrease in materiality.

(1) Litigation

On January 10, 2014, the Company filed a lawsuit against Mitsubishi Heavy Industries, Ltd. (hereinafter "MHI") at Tokyo District Court seeking compensation for damages in association with a maritime accident caused by a vessel constructed by said company. In response, MHI filed a countersuit at Tokyo District Court seeking payment for reinforcement of the strength of the ship's hull of the same type of ship, and the legal dispute is continuing.

The Company recognizes the claims of the countersuit by MHI as unjust, and intends to assert the propriety of the Company in addition to upholding the claims for damages under the lawsuit.

(2) Others

Since 2012, the Group is the subject of investigations by the antitrust authorities in the U.S. and other countries, on the suspicion of violations of each country's competition laws with respect to ocean transport services of completed build-up vehicles. In addition, a class-action lawsuit was filed in the U.S. and other countries against the Group, for damage claims, a cease and desist order for the questioned conduct. Meanwhile, the effect of these investigations and lawsuit on the financial results of the Group is uncertain as its financial impact is not estimable at this stage.

[Translation for Reference and Convenience Purposes Only]

Notes on Financial Instruments

1. Qualitative information on financial instruments

To acquire vessels and other fixed assets, the Group raises capital investment primarily by bank loans and bonds. In addition, the Group raises short-term working capital primarily by bank loans. Furthermore, the Group has commitment lines with Japanese banks to maintain sufficient sources of working capital and secure necessary liquidity in case of emergency situations.

Trade receivables are exposed to the credit risks of customers. The Group mitigates such risks by performing operations in accordance with internal regulations. In addition, trade receivables denominated in foreign currencies are exposed to the foreign currency exchange rate risks. The Group avoids this risk mainly by using exchange forward contracts to cover net trade receivables and payables denominated in foreign currencies. Investment securities are mainly stocks of companies which the Group has business relationships with. Fair value of listed stock is measured at market value on a quarterly basis.

Trade payables are due within a year. Short-term loans and commercial papers are primarily used to raise short-term working capital, while long-term loans and bonds are mainly used to raise necessary funds for capital investments. Although several items have variable interest rates and therefore are exposed to volatility risks, the Group uses derivative financial instruments (interest rate swaps and Interest rate cap contracts) to fix certain portions of such variable interest rates. Long-term loans denominated in foreign currencies are exposed to foreign currency exchange rate risks; however, currency swaps are set for a portion of such loans to minimize the risks. Derivatives are used to hedge risks as discussed above and are executed to manage risks related to actual demand. In accordance with internal policies (“Market Risk Management Policy” and “Guideline for Market Risk Management”), the Group’s policy is not to use derivatives for speculative purposes.

2. Fair values of financial instruments

The book value, fair value, and differences between the two values of financial instruments at end of this fiscal year are as follows:

	Book Value	Fair Value	Difference
(1) Cash and deposits	192,797	192,797	—
(2) Trade receivables	125,851	125,851	—
(3) Marketable securities
Available-for-sale securities	500	500	—
(4) Short-term loans receivable	16,735	16,735	—
(5) Long-term loans receivable (*1)	74,661	76,789	2,128
(6) Investment securities
Available-for-sale securities	106,775	106,775	—
(7) Trade payables	131,405	131,405	—
(8) Short-term loans	98,589	98,589	—
(9) Commercial papers	5,000	5,000	—

(12) Derivative financial instruments (*4)	8,615	8,484	(131)

(*1) The book value of long-term loans receivable includes current portion of ¥ 1,257 million.

(*2) The book value of bonds includes current portion of ¥ 31,872 million.

(*3) The book value of long-term loans includes current portion of ¥ 81,950 million.

(*4) Assets and liabilities from derivative financial instruments are net. Negative amounts are stated in [].

[Translation for Reference and Convenience Purposes Only]

Notes: 1. Methods used to measure financial instruments at fair value, and issues regarding investment securities and derivative financial instruments are as follows:

- (1) Cash and deposits, (2) Trade receivables, and (4) Short-term loans receivable

Fair value of above assets is evaluated at book value since they are settled within a short period and fair value is almost equivalent to book value.

- (3) Marketable securities

Marketable securities are jointly managed designated money trusts, and considering the short settlement periods of such trusts, book value is used because fair value is almost equivalent to book value.

- (5) Long-term loans receivable

Fair value of long-term loans receivable with variable interest rate is evaluated at book value since the interest rate reflects the market rate in a short term and fair value is almost equal to book value, unless the creditworthiness of the borrower has changed significantly since the loan was made. Fair value of long-term loans receivable with fixed interest rates, for each category of loans based on the type of loans, and maturity length, is evaluated by discounting the total amount of principal and interest using the rate which would apply if similar borrowing were newly made.

- (6) Investment securities

Fair value of stocks is evaluated at market prices at the stock exchange as of the end of the fiscal year.

Fair value of bonds is evaluated at market prices at the stock exchange or at the value provided by financial institutions as of the end of the fiscal year.

- (7) Trade payables, (8) Short-term loans, and (9) Commercial papers

Fair value of above liabilities is evaluated at book value, since they are settled within a short period and fair value is almost equivalent to book value.

- (10) Bonds

Fair value of corporate bond is evaluated at market price.

- (11) Long-term loans

Fair value of long-term bank loans with variable interest rates is evaluated at book value since fair value is almost equivalent to book value, the interest rate reflects the market rate in a short term and there has been no significant change in the creditworthiness of the Group before and after such bank loans were made. Long-term bank loans with fixed interest rates are classified by their duration, and based on their individual loan type, their fair value is evaluated by discounting the total amount of principal and interest using the rate which would apply if similar bank loans were to be newly made. Fair value of some foreign-currency denominated long-term loans is evaluated at fixed amounts based on the appropriated treatment of currency swap transactions.

- (12) Derivative financial instruments

Fair value of derivatives, which are used for hedging purposes, is measured at the value of forward exchange rates as of the end of the fiscal year or offered prices by financial institutions. Since currency swaps, which deferral hedge accounting is applied, are accounted for together with the long-term bank loans being hedged, the fair value is included in the fair value of the relevant hedged item.

2. Financial instruments which fair value are extremely difficult to determine are as follows:

(¥ million)
	Book Value
1) Unlisted stocks	7,782
2) Others	9
Total	7,792

The above items are not included in the amount presented under the line “(6) Investments securities Available-for-sale securities” in the table summarizing fair value of financial instruments, because the fair value is extremely difficult to determine as they have no quoted market price and the future cash flow cannot be estimated.

[Translation for Reference and Convenience Purposes Only]

Notes on Rental Property

1. Qualitative information on rental property

The Company and certain of its consolidated subsidiaries own real estate for office lease (including land) in Tokyo, Osaka and other areas.

2. Fair value of rental property

		(¥ million)
Book Value	Fair Value
299,603	471,023

Notes: 1. Book value is acquisition cost less accumulated depreciation.

2. Fair value of major properties is based on the valuation of independent real estate appraisers. For other properties, fair value of land is adjusted using an index that reflects market price properly. Fair value of depreciable assets such as buildings is the amount recorded on the consolidated balance sheets.

Per-share Information

1. Net assets per share ¥4,274.81
2. Net loss per share ¥396.16

Note: On October 1, 2017, MOL conducted a consolidation of shares at a ratio of ten (10) shares for every one (1) share. Net loss per share is calculated on the assumption that said consolidation of shares had been made at the beginning of this fiscal year.

Held-to-maturity debt securities

Amortized cost method

Equity securities issued by subsidiaries and affiliates

Stated at cost using the moving-average method

Other securities

Available-for-sale securities with market value

Market value method based on the market price as of the closing date
(Unrealized gains/losses are recorded in equity. Costs of securities sold are determined based on the moving-average method)

without market value

Stated at cost based on the moving-average method

Derivative transactions

Market value method

Inventories

Stated at cost mainly based on the moving-average method
(Amounts on the balance sheet are measured at the lower of cost or net realizable value)

2. Depreciation methods for fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets (excluding leased assets)

Vessels

Straight-line method

Buildings and structures

Straight-line method

Other tangible fixed assets

Mainly declining-balance method

Intangible fixed assets
(excluding leased assets)

Straight-line method

Internal use software is depreciated by the straight line method, based on the estimated useful life of 5 years.

Leased assets

Leased assets under finance leases that transfer ownership are depreciated consistently as fixed assets that the Company owns.

Leased assets under finance leases other than those that transfer ownership are depreciated using the straight-line method, based on lease terms and residual value of zero.

3. Accounting treatment for deferred assets

- Bond issue expenses
 - Expensed as incurred
- Stock issue expenses
 - Expensed as incurred

4. Accounting for allowances

- Allowance for doubtful accounts
 - Allowance for general receivables is based on historical default rate.
 - Allowance for specific receivables, such as individual doubtful receivables, is based on the individual likelihood of default.
- Allowance for bonuses
 - Allowance for bonuses to employees is based on the estimated amount of future payments attributed to the fiscal year.
- Allowance for directors' bonuses
 - Allowance for bonuses to directors is based on the estimated amounts of future payments.
- Allowance for loss on contracts
 - Allowance for loss on contracts is based on the estimated amounts of loss on contracts with future higher probability of loss to be incurred due to decision made over contracts, etc.
- Allowance for loss related to business restructuring
 - Allowance for loss related to business restructuring is based on estimated amount of loss related to business restructuring.
- Allowance for employees' severance and retirement benefits
 - Allowance for retirement benefits to employees is based on the estimated amounts of retirement benefit obligations and pension assets as of the end of the fiscal year.
 - In calculating retirement benefit obligations, the Company uses straight-line attribution as a method of attributing estimates of retirement benefit to a period up to the end of the fiscal year.
 - Actuarial differences are recognized using the straight-line method within the estimated remaining service period (generally 10 years) commencing with the following period. Prior service cost is accounted for as expenses in lump-sum at the time of occurrence.
- Allowance for loss on guarantees
 - Provided for losses arising from fulfilling guarantee obligations, the Company appropriates a provision for the estimated losses in view of the financial conditions of guaranteed companies.

5. Recognition of freight revenues and related expenses

Interest on loans and bonds payable
Interest on loans
Fuel oil
Freight

Hedging policy

Hedging derivative transactions are executed in accordance with the Company's internal regulations, "Market Risk Management Policy" and "Guideline for Market Risk Management," clarifying hedged items by individual case, in order to hedge risks of currency exchange rate fluctuations, interest rate fluctuations, or changes in prices against relevant hedged items.

Method of evaluating the effectiveness of hedges

In principle, the Company evaluates hedge effectiveness by comparing the cumulative changes in cash flows from or the changes in the fair value of hedged items, and the cumulative changes in cash flows from or the changes in fair value of hedging instruments during the period from commencement of hedging to the point of evaluating effectiveness, based on changes in both amounts and others. As for interest swap contracts meeting the requirement of special treatment, the evaluation of hedge effectiveness is omitted.

7. Interest expense is generally expensed as incurred. However, interest expense for assets which are constructed over a long term and are significant in terms of investment, is included in acquisition cost.

8. The accounting methods for unrecognized actuarial differences relating to retirement benefits are different from those accounting methods in the consolidated financial statements.

9. Consumption tax and similar local taxes are excluded from income and expense.

Notes to Changes in Presentations

(Non-consolidated statements of income)

"Gain on reversal of subscription rights to shares" which was included in "Others" in Extraordinary income in the previous fiscal year, is separately disclosed in this fiscal year due to the increase in materiality. "Gain on reversal of subscription rights to shares" for the previous fiscal year was ¥317 million.

(1) Litigation

On January 10, 2014, the Company filed a lawsuit against Mitsubishi Heavy Industries, Ltd. (hereinafter “MHI”) at Tokyo District Court seeking compensation for damages in association with a maritime accident caused by a vessel constructed by said company. In response, MHI filed a countersuit at Tokyo District Court seeking payment for reinforcement of the strength of the ship’s hull of the same type of ship, and the legal dispute is continuing.

The Company recognizes the claims of the countersuit by MHI as unjust, and intends to assert the propriety of the Company in addition to upholding the claims for damages under the lawsuit.

(2) Others

Since 2012, MOL is the subject of investigations by the antitrust authorities in the U.S. and other countries, on the suspicion of violations of each country’s competition laws with respect to ocean transport services of completed build-up vehicles. In addition, a class-action lawsuit was filed in the U.S. and other countries against the MOL, for damage claims, a cease and desist order for the questioned conduct. Meanwhile, the effect of these investigations and lawsuit on the financial results of MOL is uncertain as its financial impact is not estimable at this stage.
